

The Raven Radio Theater Presents!

A Unique Radio Drama Presentation for Conferences and Retreats

www.ravenradiotheater.com

Return to the golden days of radio as twenty or more volunteer conference participants recreate an old-fashioned “live” radio drama broadcast, circa 1940, complete with period microphones and an assortment of engaging, hand-operated sound effects. This popular presentation can be scheduled as a keynote or luncheon/evening banquet event. Rehearsal time for the volunteer readers and sound effects’ crew is approximately one hour. A number of entertaining original scripts by public radio producer Joe McHugh are available or a new script can be commissioned which addresses the theme of the conference. A refreshing change from the traditional keynote or banquet presentation.

The Raven Radio Theater Provides:

- ★ all audio mixing and recording equipment
- ★ a variety of imaginative sound effects
- ★ original radio drama script
- ★ experienced radio drama direction
- ★ professional recording of the performance

What People Say . . .

“The Raven Radio Theater was a big hit with cast members and audience alike and our membership thoroughly enjoyed watching their peers have so much fun. Joe and Paula McHugh have always shown high levels of professionalism, quality work and interaction, and follow-through to the commitments made.”

Mack Armstrong, Ed.D. Assistant Executive Director, Professional Development, Washinton Association of School Administrators

“Everyone loved the Raven Radio Show. I really appreciated the McHugh’s cooperation and willingness to provide us with such a unique opening session; it set the pace for the conference and contributed to everyone’s enjoyment of the weekend.”

Bebs Chorak, Deputy Director, National Youth for Justice Conference

“I recommend this unique, enriching, and enjoyable presentation for any gathering of educators. The writing, direction, and staging are first-rate and the McHugh’s are a joy to work with.”

Kathy Yeates, Director, Healthy Kids - Healthy California, California Department of Education

“The radio show was one of the highest rated presentations at our conference. The response of the participants was overwhelmingly positive and we look forward to a return engagement!”

Steve Fernan, Chair, Program Sharing Conference, Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction

Contact:

Joe or Paula McHugh
7605 Boston Harbor Rd. NE
Olympia, WA 98506
360-943-3206
ravenradiotheater@comcast.net